

Schuylkill County Community Recreation Directory

April 8, 2014

By Tom Barnyock

The following is an in depth look at all of the communities in Schuylkill County and what each offers for recreational purposes as of April 8, 2014 but keep in mind things are constantly changing from year to year.. The purpose of this online directory is to promote community recreation throughout the county. The directory not only benefits each community, but also Schuylkill County Parks and Recreation. By developing this directory, I am hoping to attract more people to the area and show them that there is a lot of recreational opportunities' that they did not even know existed. Included is a spreadsheet that gives a general overview of what kinds of recreation is available in each community and a brief summary of each community including contact info, rental fees, locations, and parks and playground names.
